

In reference to the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law, I am glad it was enacted. I now enjoy my family time w/o rude telephone interruptions. I was receiving several calls in a day especially toward the end of the month. Now, I receive only a couple of calls. The quietness of the phone from unwanted solicitations is wonderful. I do not give to people who bug me on the phone, so they're wasting their time and upsetting my privacy!